Dear Sir
Re this latest email …
I have lived in Drungewick Manor ,Drungewick Lane for 42 years .
Apart from all the issues which I mentioned in my last email I would like to re iterate
That the safety aspect is so important .
These lanes are so busy now and are becoming VERY dangerous for walkers ‘ cyclists / Horse riders and children .I think the additional traffic caused by these huge numbers of Lorries per day - for many years is a real safety issue which should be considered very seriously.
I have seen so many accidents and near accidents on the route to be used that I think
Any additional traffic is a danger let alone the volume of lorries and vehicles that will Happen if the clay pits - refuse site goes ahead .
Many thanks
MIKE RUTHERFORD
