James,

Further to our discussion on Friday last week, you will be aware that the target determination period for this application is today. Given we are still waiting for some final clarifications from you and a review of draft conditions, and noting I am on annual leave between 25 July-12 August, I would be grateful if the applicant could agree to an extension to the target determination date of 16 August 2024.

I look forward to hearing from you,

James
