Type of Comment	Objection
Comments	How can this even be considered, so close to the "jewel" in the south downs national park. Arundel and surrounding area is of outstanding natural beauty and to have a monstrosity like this in such close proximity is ludicrous. The beauty and nature in this area must be protected for future generations. The area already suffers from congestion traffic wise, the impact of all the extra traffic associated with this will simply overwhelm the roads in the area.
