Comments	The sheer size of this development is totally out of keeping with the surrounding area and will perminantly tarnish the West Sussex skyline. This will be clearly visible from many parts of the national park and from along the coast line. I am also concerned about the increase in HGVs this will bring along Ford road, Arundel which is a constant bottleneck and where HGVs often become stuck trying to pass. Ford road Arundel would become a key route for this new scheme worsening the current unsafe and problematic situation.
