Comments	Where is the impact statement on the local environment, traffic, house prices, efficiency of the proposed project, the full risk assessment? So many things are yet to be considered and fully understood by building this here. Also, with the amount of new houses agreed on and around the area, it is impossible to conduct a full assessment. You simply can't have both without compromising the local community. Which in turn costs the government more money. Increases in health issues, lack of access to schools, doctors, facilities, all of which compound to add additional strain to the local council and government. Why is this not being thought through? Prove it is not economic only and I might be convinced. However at present there is not clear statement of benefit or clarity of benefit realisation in connection with this suggestion. Quite frankly the whole proposal is scandalous when taken into account with the other plans for the area. The council should be ashamed.
