Comments	Before we moved to out property we checked the survey closely for hazard gases. My husband had a first in the world dcd heart and lung transplant in 2019. Pollution increases his chances of rejecting the organs and so we have to be very careful. This project would not only bring its own hazardous waste but increase the traffic to the area. The site is going to block light from the plants and crops around it and will be am eye sore in a very tranquil area. We should be preserving the area and respecting its historical significance. Please don't increase the health hazards in the area. Charities have spent so much money saving my husbands life. He is so young and we've been through so much.
