Comments	The siting of any building over 3 stories high, close to the south coast would make it visible from the South Downs National Park, the coast and from the surrounding countryside. Whilst it is assumed there is a commercial demand for waste disposal facilities from companies across the south coast, which will benefit Arun DC, the visual intrusion of a major structure so visible from the SDNP is likely to have a negative commercial impact on the local tourist industry. for Arun DC for waste disposal facilities to be offered it is also assumed that the siting would be more sensitive to
