Comments	My wife and I have recently moved to Arundel to retire. I suffer from COPD and my health would suffer greatly if this incinerator was allowed to be built. The traffic caused by heavy lorries would polute the environment and cause traffic problems on local roads. This is not a step forward in this country's ongoing battle against pollution. It would be a visual disaster on the South Downs National Park. The health impact to local residents would be disastrous damaging the air quality. This is not the way forward for generating energy. Its a step backward. West Sussex already has its fair share of incinerator sites. I strongly object to this rubbish incinerator being built in the Arun Valley.
