Comments	-More heavy vehicles on local small roads, which no one sticks to the 30 or 40 limit -destroying the countryside, ruining everyone's views, which we don't have many left in this country as new builds are getting slung up everywhere -noise and smell pollution, which is all ready about but going to get a lot worse -what you have already is plenty big enough for your needs. -and there's going to be so many more motor incidents and more casualties, as the lorry drivers aren't driving with any care what so ever
