Comments	The area cannot sustain any more development - excess housing, people and now the incinerator. It will totally ruin the local environment, the view, excess pollution and increase road traffic. Why anyone would think this is a good idea is beyond me. Why not create something for the local residents for a change - like a park, errr with TREES, for nature. Why does everything and every piece of land have to be developed. I'm sick of it. The roads are congested, in bad repair and too packed - where are the infrastructure projects to support this growth - it's all nonsense.
