Comments	I strongly object to the proposed clay quarry and materials recycling plant at this location. These woods are home to many species of birds, insects and mammals, bordered by green fields full of dairy cows, as well as being a diverse natural beauty spot which is used daily by many local residents and visitors from further afield - dog walkers, ramblers, cyclists and horseriders. The woods are a peaceful haven for wildlife as well as local residents and those living nearby to enjoy the fresh, clean air and environment for exercise and relaxation. I live in Horsham and regularly trave

The proposed works would destroy this tranquil environment, cause a nuisance for all local traffic and irreversibly damage the habitat of our wildlife which is already being eroded in so many places.
