Dear Sirs, I am recovering at home after an operation and I am immobile, so I am using the simplest method to register my wife Sandra Mantle and my objections to this application.

We live in [REDACTED], and have had to endure nearly 5 years of 40 ton lorries full of soil going to and from Rudgwick Brickworks every weekday. The huge trucks planned to remove the clay will devastate the small country roads causing untold damage to the lanes. Our own [REDACTED] is always covered in potholes which are left unrepaired.

There is no demand for this type of clay which is unsuitable

This is a remote and tranquil area with ancient woodlands and paths

The noise level will be unbearable to all the people living on the roads and nearby.

In the name of God Almighty, refuse this application

Yours faithfully,

[REDACTED]
