Comment for planning application WSCC/030/21

| Application number | WSCC/030/21                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|--------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Name               | Nigel Gibbons                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Address            | OAKHURST FARM, OAKHURST LANE, OAKHURST LANE, BILLINGSHURST, RH14 0QR                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Type ofComment | Objection                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Comments           | I am objecting to this application due to the inevitable significant increase in HGV traffic on quiet rural roads. It will not only give rise to safety risks; but will also represent an unwelcome intrusion into the countryside environment. |
| Received           | 23/08/2021 14:00:46                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |

Attachments