Comments	Waste sites as stated in National policy should be on brownfield sites or in built-up areas, not on a greenfield site. There is no demand for brick making clay locally as WSCC have more than 25 years of reserves. The location is remote and in a totally unspoilt area with no other buildings nearby. There would be damage to wildlife and noise and light pollution. The HGV traffic generated would have a hugely detrimental impact on the totally unsuitable rural, narrow lanes they would have to use and represents a severe risk for other road users. This development would add absolutely no benefit to the local community.
