Type of Comment	Objection
Comments	We don't need any more encroachment on our green spaces, which provide places of peace to get away from the stresses of Life. These spaces are already getting eroded by dubious house development sites. Anyway, it would seem that there is no immediate demand for brick-making clay in this area, and any remote requirement would mean yet more heavy lorries on our already over-crowded roads. The desecration of this woodland would be bad enough, but the proposed daily lorry movements on the local roads and through the associated woodlands, are appalling. Please don't allow this to happen
