Comments	<input type="text" value="I should like to register my strongest objections to the proposed application, which I consider will be detrimental to the environment and surrounding areas and roads, and is unnecessary given the County's resources elsewhere. This application is simply profiteering without regard for environmental impact, destruction of natural wildlife habitat and woodland, road safety, people's welfare, health and daily living. The Loxwood Road is a fast narrow country road originally built to cope with carts and horses, and is dangerous enough in parts with today's wider cars, so regular HGV movement on this road will increase the risks. The site is a long way from current existing Lorry Routes on the A281, and as the road is incapable of taking a beating from numerous heavy lorries daily, will need frequent repair. The loss of the woodland and intrusion over footpaths and bridleway, the noise, road access and safety will make a far-reaching impact on the area's environment. Many of us will be dead by the time the project comes to an end, but our children and grandchildren will witness and have to live with the destruction this application ensures if approved."/>
